Online Privacy Statement

The Office of the Minnesota Secretary of State (OSS) is responsible for the administration of Minnesota election laws, the Uniform Commercial Code records, notaries public, an open appointments process and business filings. This requires the collection of certain company data and personal information.

This office collects and stores non-personal information (i.e., the domain from which you access the Internet; the date and time you access the OSS site; the Internet address of the Web site from which you linked to the OSS site; and the information you view while visiting the OSS Web site) for internal statistical purposes. This office may collect personal information such as a home address, home phone number, or e-mail address when you provide such information via e-mail or on a request for information, registration, feedback or comment form. This office gathers non-personal "user profile" information to help define our audience and to better meet their needs (statistical purposes). A users personal information is used only to complete those service(s) specifically requested by the user.

The OSS protects all information pursuant to the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (MGDPA), Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13.

Web site Terms of Use

By accessing, browsing and/or using this Web site ("Site"), you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these terms and to comply with all applicable laws and regulations. If you do not agree to these terms, do not use this Site. The material provided on this Site may be protected by law, including, but not limited to United States Copyright Law and international treaties. See statement below under "Copyright". This Site is controlled and operated by the OSS. This office makes no representation that materials in the Site are appropriate or available for use in other locations, and access to them from territories where their content are illegal is prohibited. Those who choose to access this Site from other locations do so of their own initiative and are solely responsible for compliance with applicable local laws. Any claims relating to, and the use of, this Site and materials contained herein are governed by the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Limitation of Liability

Under no circumstance shall OSS be held liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, including, but not limited to, loss of data or profit, arising out of the use, or the inability to use, the materials on this Site, even if this office has been advised of the possibility of such damages.
